

MARIPOSA

YOUR PARKS | YOUR PASS

Get free entry to San Mateo County Parks through the Mariposa Program

You may be eligible for a free San Mateo County Park pass through the Mariposa Program, a partnership of San Mateo County's Parks Department and the Human Services Agency (HSA).

Where can I use the park pass?

The park pass is good for 12 months, and covers the $6 entrance fee to these San Mateo County Parks:

- San Bruno Mountain in Brisbane
- Junipero Serra Park in San Bruno
- Coyote Point Recreation Area in San Mateo
- Huddart Park in Woodside
- San Pedro Valley Park in Pacifica
- Sam McDonald Park in Loma Mar
- Memorial Park in Loma Mar

Am I eligible for this program?

San Mateo County residents who are enrolled in these programs are eligible for a park pass:

- Medi-Cal
- CalFresh
- CalWORKS
- San Mateo County Access and Care for Everyone (ACE)

How can I request a free park pass?

Call San Mateo County's Human Services Agency at (650) 508-3200 and leave your name and phone number

OR

Request a pass online:
www.smcgov.org/form/mariposa-program

If you're not enrolled in one of the programs listed above, you can get free entry to a San Mateo County Park if:

- You check out a park pass at a San Mateo County Library
- You are a veteran and show proof of veteran status
- You are a senior (62+) (free entry Monday–Friday, non-holidays)
- Your vehicle displays disabled plates/placards

Learn more about San Mateo County Parks at SMCoParks.org